

Horus Business Modeler

Release Notes 2.6.9

Horus Business Modeler

- Display of additional documents to test scenarios and test cases inside the report
- Allocation of multiple object types of an object model to a key figure
- Visualization of labels (name, abbreviated name, description) in the properties
- Adoption of all defined standard formats by clicking a standard button
- Display of edge labels in the system architecture report
- Editing of proxy settings only in the repository settings
- Extended display of fields and attributes inside the report
- Modern comment view

Private Community Portal

- Display of test scenarios
- Display of linked elements such as roles and system components
- Transition from object copy to original object by clicking
- New buttons for jumping to previous or following activities
- Highlighting of selected elements

February 2021